Mqabba Santa Marija Club celebrates its centenary

The Mqabba Santa Marija Club, which incorporates King George V Band Club, will be celebrating its centenary over the next few days culminating in a grand fireworks show on Saturday and the titular procession of the Assumption on Sunday.

The Club was set up in 1910 and was named King George V Club after the King who acceded to the throne on 6 May of that year.

On Tuesday, King George V Band will commemorate the centenary with a musical programme under the patronage of the Prime Minister, Lawrence Gonzi.

On Saturday, from 9.30pm, the Mqabba Santa Marija Fireworks Group will put on a grand fireworks show especially for the centenary. Spectacular fireworks and original effects will be synchronised to classical and film music scores by a computerised system, FireOne, which is used in fireworks shows around the world. A ground fireworks display in the village square will then wind up the night.

The St Mary Mqabba Fireworks Group were the first winners of the Malta Fireworks Festival held over the Grand Harbour in 2006, and went on to win the City of Light World Fireworks Championship in Rome in 2007. In April of the this year The St Mary Mqabba Fireworks Group have also won the national ground fireworks competition held on the Granaries in Floriana.
